

The Difference Card + amazon

If you participate in an FSA, you can now use your Difference Card to purchase eligible items on Amazon!

Using your Difference Card on Amazon.com –

- Amazon recently announced that it has become a SIGIS-certified merchant, meaning that it will now accept consumer's flexible spending account funds.
- You can now purchase medical supplies and other FSA-eligible items with your FSA-loaded Difference Card when you visit Amazon.com.
- Because Amazon uses the SIGIS IIAS system, all FSA purchases are auto-substantiated at the point of purchase so you don't have to submit a receipt.
- Visit the FSA Store at Amazon.com to shop eligible items.
- You can add your Difference Card to your Amazon Account by clicking ADD YOUR CARD in the FSA Store front.
